

I would like to see Morse Code removed as a barrier in Ham radio. While I believe Morse should continue to be recognized as a means of communication, its only one method of many and should be given no special consideration. Morse should not be used as a barrier to High Frequency communications. I find knowledge is more important than talent. I would also like to see the Ham radio license classifications in three categories, Technician, General and Extra.

Jimmy Aycok, KG4JUJ